That is the whole story. Not another word necessary. You know the place. Every Roanoker knows it. Every Roanoke countryman who travels, reads or listens knows it. You know it as headquarters for everything that is new, for liberal trading, for generous treatment. You know that whatever choice goods (from the cheapest to the best) should be in the biggest most progressive store in any of the larger cities, are here. More than all that, you know that what you buy is dependable and the prices are right.

These ideas are cornerstones of the business. It has grown on them and from them. That is why, when you think of anything in the whole world of jewelry, pop into your mind. No odds what you need, there is one place where it can be surely met, and you know it.

Items of Interest That Transpired in Washington Yesterday.

The Senate Still Hammering at the Tariff Bill—That Body Also Finds Time to Pass a Few Bills on the Calendar—The House Was Not in Session—Damage of the Venezuelan Earthquake.

WASHINGTON, May 19.—After the transaction of some minor business, Harris moved to take up the tariff bill and declined to yield to a request of Hinton's for unanimous consent to consider a bill, saying that if he yielded to one Senator he would have to yield to another, and that he was not in a yielding mood this morning. (Laughter).

The tariff bill was then taken up and Gallinger proceeded to deliver the third portion of his speech against the bill, occupying nearly two hours.

He took the ground that the bill should be defeated whatever form it may assume and he declared his readiness to do his part in defeating it by the use of any methods that could be adopted under the rules. After he had finished several items in the glass and china schedule, which had been left on Friday, were taken up and were, after considerable discussion, disposed of, the committee amendments being in every case agreed to. When the bill went over for the day there were still three items in that schedule undecided, Aldrich having reserved them on Friday and not being prepared to discuss them to day.

The result of the day's session, up to adjournment at five minutes past 4, was taken up in session on bills on the calendar, of which over a dozen were passed. The most important of them were: For the suppression of lottery traffic; making further provision for the execution of the regulations for restoring for seals, and for the relief of the relatives of the seamen of the Netherlands steamer Amsterdam, who lost their lives in the effort to save the crew of the American fishing schooner, Maggie E. Wells, of Gloucester, Mass.

A resolution was reported from the committee on contingent expenses by Camden and agreed to authorizing the select committee appointed under the Lodge resolution (Gray's sugar investigating committee) to employ a stenographer and to incur such other expenses as it may deem necessary. Adjourned at 4:50 p. m. until 10 a. m. Monday.

The President's Trip Extended.

The President is not expected to return to the White House until Friday or Saturday of next week. Mrs. Cleveland and the children will end the visit to Mrs. Perrine at Buffalo about the same time and the White House family will probably be reunited Sunday or Monday. Mrs. Cleveland will not go to Gray Gables for some time.

Testing the Armor Plate.

The armor test at the Indian Head proving grounds to day gave everybody a big surprise. The test had been looked forward to with great interest by naval officers and armor and ordnance experts, because the subject was the first plate of the dimension ever forged in the world, and the party that went down on the Triton included representative men from all interested classes.

The plate chosen for the test was one of the Harveized side armor plates for the battleship Indiana forged by the Bethlehem Company. It had been expected that the attack would be made by the 13-inch gun, but Captain Sampson concluded that the 12 inch rifle would sufficiently try the temper of the plate. The first shot fired was a Carpenter armor-piercing projectile propelled by a 269 1/2 pound charge of Dupont prismatic powder, having a muzzle velocity of 1,465 feet per second, and striking with an energy of 12,600 foot tons. This was called the "cracking shot" and such it proved to be.

The projectile penetrated the plate a depth of eight inches and rebounded thirty feet, having been set up, but four tenths of an inch and apparently as good as ever. The plate was driven into three great pieces by one irregular crack extending from top to bottom, and another from the left hand edge to the center of the plate where the shot struck.

It had been the intention to fire several smokeless powder cartridges from the four and five inch rapid fire guns to close the day's programme, but a heavy downpour of rain just after the second shot was fired at the plate drove every one to shelter and thence to the Triton for the return trip to the city.

THE PRESIDENT'S SPORTING TRIP

He is Meeting With Great Success With Gun and Line.

RALEIGH, N. C., May 19.—A special to the News Observer-Chronicle from Washington, N. C., says: President Cleveland, Secretary Carlisle and Secretary Gresham spent six hours here to day. They came on the steamer Violet, which coaled up at the Government yards and left a supply of oil for the light house. The party killed 355 birds on Bodie Island Friday, the President leading with 144.

Near Hatteras the catch of blue fish and drum surpassed anything Grover ever saw. That beat the Adirondacks. Monday they take another hunt on Bodie Island, then go direct to Washington city. The President has not been to Morehead at all. He is delighted with this second visit to North Carolina and expects to return in the fall and take a deer hunt in Hyde Park.

The party came to North Carolina solely for recreation and pleasure and have enjoyed the visit and feel much rejuvenated. On points politically they were all reticent. As the Violet steamed out they all stood on deck and acknowledged the salutes of the people who lined the wharves.

DAMAGE OF THE VENEZUELA 'QUAKE'

Bridges of a Famous Railroad Destroyed—A Town Disappears.

WASHINGTON, May 19.—Advices were received at the State Department to day from Consul Plumacher at Maracabo, dated May 5, showing that the greatest damage of the Venezuelan earthquake was done on the famous San Carlos and Merida railway nearly completed in the Andes.

The axis of the disturbances, which lasted at some points three days, was along its line. Several of the splendid bridges were totally destroyed and others were considerably affected. Several stations were thrown down, the rails were twisted and bent and in some places broken apart, and a number of lives were lost.

La Guinillos, with all its inhabitants, disappeared entirely, a lake now occupying its site. In some places black water, having a fetid odor, was expelled from crevices in the earth.

The earthquake is said to have been much worse than those of 1849 and 1875. At the latter the flourishing city of Cuenca, Columbia, was demolished, and 5,000 persons lost their lives. The Venezuelan minister at Washington has been asked to solicit contributions in this country for the relief of sufferers.

Prominent Citizens Implicated in a Murder.

BRISTOL, May 19.—Great excitement has prevailed at Gate City, Va., caused by the confession of Harvey Wallace, son of a physician of that place, implicating a number of leading citizens in the murder of Samuel Wood, an inoffensive colored man, Monday night. The party, calling themselves "regulators," was in search of women of ill-repute, whom it was meant to tar and feather. The "regulators" murdered Wood for refusing to permit them to search his house. Among the best citizens now arrested and under guard are Dr. Samuel Patton, Clinton Davidson, John Pearson, George Carr, George Blair and Floyd Williams. The officers are in search of others.

The Committee on Repeals Reports in Favor of Dr. Kelly.

The Action of the Tennessee Methodist Conference is Reversed—Gathering of the Presbyterians—The Committee Having Charge of Rev. Dr. Smith's Appeal Will Recommend That It be Entertained.

MEMPHIS, May 19.—Bishop Haygood opened the Methodist conference this morning and then retired when Bishop Fitzgerald took the chair. Resolutions of sorrow were offered on the death of Rev. J. B. Lawrence, of the Virginia Conference, who was a missionary to Mexico and did grand work there. The resolutions were unanimously adopted. The call for reports of standing committees was then taken up, and the following was submitted as report No. 3, of the committee on appeals:

"In the case of D. C. Kelly, who appeals from the action of the Tennessee conference, the committee on appeals reverse the action of the conference. This short report is a vindication of Dr. Kelly, who has already suffered the punishment of suspension for six months for being a candidate for governor on the prohibition ticket in this State in 1890. The report is also a very hard blow to Bishop Hargrove, being a declaration that his action in the trial of Dr. Kelly was contrary to church law.

While Dr. Kelly was making his canvass for governor the annual conference met, and Bishop Hargrove, over the solemn and earnest protest of the conference, appointed the committee of trial, when the conference claimed that as its right, and the law of the church bore the conference out. Dr. Kelly's character was arrested, and he went on trial. The bishop did not allow the conference to construe the law, which was its right, but construed it himself in a way that displeased not only the conference but many other members of the church and many outside people. The report was adopted.

Dr. Tigert offered a formal protest to the action in which the report of the committee was adopted. His protest was agreed upon and spread on the journal.

Southern Presbyterian Assembly.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., May 19.—The general assembly of the Southern Presbyterian Church to-day received the report of committee on the Birmingham conference, which recently reached an agreement to turn over the work of negro evangelization to the Freedman's board. After some discussion the agreement reached by the joint committee at Birmingham was rejected.

The general assembly received two overtures from the Presbytery of North Alabama, one asking the appointment of a committee on Presbyterian unity, and the other requiring the standing committee be appointed on co-operation in home mission work, to confer with a like committee of the Northern Presbyterian Church at Saratoga, the powers of the committee to be simply advisory.

General Presbyterian Assembly.

SARATOGA, N. Y., May 19.—The business of the 106th Presbyterian assembly was resumed at 9:30 this morning. Dr. Craig, of the committee on bills and overtures, presented a partial report from his committee. This was in effect as follows:

On the question of reunion with the Southern Church the committee recommended that the assembly take action to appoint a special committee of nine to confer with a similar committee, if one should be appointed by the Southern Church, to take into consideration the whole question of organic union of the two churches and to report to the next general assembly.

The resolution was greeted with applause and was adopted by a unanimous rising vote. The moderator and stated clerk were authorized to telegraph the resolution to the Southern Church.

Overtures were reported for the organic union of the churches, North and South, and referred to the committee on bills and overtures.

Col. John J. McCook, of Fifth Avenue Church, New York, was appointed vice-moderator.

The report of the judicial committee on the Smith heresy case, which was to close the third day's session of the assembly, was suddenly shelved this morning after a hurried conference of the leading members of the committee held in the pulpit back of the moderator. The hour for the reading of the report arrived just as the conference was closed and the chairman announced that the committee had decided to withhold the report until Monday.

Dr. Gardner, chairman of the committee, has the report in his possession, and it will be read at the opening hour on Monday. It finds that the appeal of Dr. Smith, of the Cincinnati Presbytery, is in order, and recommends that it be entertained. This will be a surprise to the commissioners, as it was given out that the finding would be against its being entertained, and thus the disagreeable task of listening to hours of heresy debate would be avoided. The committee takes the position that the assembly should give the Smith case a fair hearing.

The committee will not have an opportunity to hear arguments on the judicial committee's report on Monday, for as soon as it is read it loses its place in the order of the day, and the chairman must yield the floor to the chairman of the special committee on theological seminaries. It will be put on the calendar for Wednesday or Thursday by which time the theological seminary reports will be out of the way. The majority report on the seminaries question, briefly stated, recommends the creation of a trust under which all the endowments of seminaries shall be held, and gives the general assembly power over the elections to the faculties and boards of trustees. Power is also given for the enforcement of the veto and of the terms of the trust.

Lane Seminary, of Cincinnati, which

BOTH WERE DROWNED.

Sad Accident Upon the Rappahannock River at Fredericksburg.

WASHINGTON, May 19.—A special to the Post from Fredericksburg, Va., says: This afternoon Lizzie Erickson, aged about 15, daughter of Mr. Gus Erickson, and Alexander Humphreys, son of Mrs. William Humphreys, both of this city, were drowned in the Rappahannock river just below the dam. Together with Tom Humphreys, a younger brother of Alexander, they were playing on a scow when the girl fell in the river.

Alexander Humphreys quickly threw off his coat and jumped into the river, reached Lizzie when she rose the second time and bravely seized her. He succeeded in floating her some distance, but when within a few feet of the shore the girl became excited, threw her arms around the boy's neck and they both sank together.

Tom Humphreys ran home and informed his parents. The news spread rapidly and a large crowd gathered at the scene of the sad accident. The river, which is quite swollen from the rains, is now being dragged for the bodies.

NEWS FROM ACROSS THE WATER

Crusade in the United Kingdom Against Betting at Races.

Prospects of Removing an Edict in Regard to Bees Received From Canada and the United States—Renewed Activity in Yachting Circles—Preparing for the Banquet to be Tendered the Cruiser Chicago's Officers.

LONDON, May 19.—The National Anti-gambling League has begun an active crusade against betting on race courses. A test case has been raised against the lessees of the Northampton race course, who have been summoned to court on charges of violating the betting act and permitting gambling within their enclosure on racing days.

If the league should win their case it would effectually put an end to race course betting everywhere in the Kingdom, and deal a mortal blow to the sport of racing.

To Remove the Edict Regarding Cattle.

The support given by Lord Ripon, secretary of state for the colonies, to the demand of the Dominion of Canada that the edict requiring Canadian cattle to be slaughtered upon landing be withdrawn, has raised a feeling of expectancy that these restrictions will be removed before the reopening of trade for the coming season.

The Canadian authorities here have reason to believe that the period of special examination of Canadian cattle ordered by the board of trade will terminate in June.

With the cessation of the regulations concerning Canadian cattle, the embargo on cattle from the United States ought also to be raised. The live stock Journal says the United States Government has already brought pressure upon Great Britain upon that subject.

Great Yachting Season in Prospect.

A great yachting season is in prospect. The appearance of the American yacht Vigilant and Lascas in the Clyde has given an immense impulse to yachting. The launching of new yachts is of almost daily occurrence. There is an enormous fleet of ten raters and a large number of twenty raters, among the latter a cutter built for Prince Henry of Battenburg, designed by Watson and another constructed by F. B. Jameson, of Dublin.

Yachting circles cordially approve the decision of the committee of the Dorset Yacht Club accepting the entry of the Vigilant as a competitor for the queen's cup. The Clyde Yacht Club has agreed to give an extra cup for twenty raters.

The Banquet to the Chicago Officers.

George Hamilton has been selected to preside at the banquet to be given in honor of the officers of the United States cruiser "Chicago" next Thursday. A souvenir book is being prepared which will contain artistic illustrations and photographs of Admiral Erben, Captain Mahan and the officers of the Chicago.

The invitation cards and band programme are illuminated with the flags of the United States and Great Britain, and becomes a motto of Commodore Tatnall's historic saying: "Blood is thicker than water." A number of tickets admitting them to the gallery on the occasion of the banquet have been given to American ladies.

Oates is Still in the Lead.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., May 19.—The returns from Geneva, which voted to-day, are in. The county instructs its four delegates to vote for Oates. Both headquarters are now open in this city and the votes will be carried to the convention.
